This Week's Program: Nell Burrows - Freedom Park Update

Lawrence Jones at bat for Invocation & Pledge.

Check-In: Bart Greeter: Dave Hitchcock 50/50: Bud Halsey

Next Week's Program: To be announced

Phil Arony on deck for Invocation & Pledge

Last Week's Program: Sadly Teresa Dangwa, who was scheduled to talk to us about school supplies for Zimbabwe was unable to join us. We look forward to a rescheduled presentation. Dave Hannel gave the invocation while Dave Hitchcock greeted and Bart and Bud raked in the money. Greg Phillips noted that the team assignments for corporate funding raising for the tourney had not yet gone out, but urged members to get on this important work when the lists were published.

Doug Roylance of another local club had a range of embroidered Rotary themed shirts for sale.

John Mackey gave a lengthy presentation wherein he proposed a list of by-law changes. After considerable discussion, the changes were proposed, seconded and accepted. (This paragraph does not totally meet part 1 of the four way test.)

Chuck Palmer donated and Edmond Culhane auctioned tickets to SPAC for Kings of Leon which Dona Fragnoli won and tickets for Dooby Brothers which Krystal Flatebo swept up before some of us had a chance to bid.

Larry Jones reported that the China water project is complete and the village is piped up. All that reportedly remains now is for the Chinese Peoples' Government to connect the system to the water main.

Upcoming Speakers:

(call Roger Peugh)

06/25 Jim Golden - Oak Island (The Money Pit)

Jack Arnold on deck for Invocation & Pledge

RI Convention - Sad News: RI have declined our request to permit one day attendance to the Montreal Convention.

Installation Dinner: Don't forget we've got the Installation Dinner on Tuesday. Besides the joy of another peaceful transfer of power, and besides the coronation of Good Queen Beth, there will also be the presentation of Student of the Year award. It's 6 pm drinkypoos followed by dinner at 7 pm at the Water's Edge Lighthouse.
